May 25, 2015 is memorial day.

We will be honoring those Americans who have given their lives to support our ideals and Republic.

They answered their country's call from all walks of life. They responded as necessary in Europe, in the Middle East, in the far Pacific—actually all over the world.

They gave their all to protect Americans, allies, friends, enemies. They were soldiers, sailors, merchant seamen, marines, coast guards, airmen—some were even civilians. They are the dead. We remember and celebrate their sacrifices: "They Gave Their Lives To Protect Their Country."

May 25 is a solemn day. It is a day of remembrance. It is a day to be proud of our country. It is a day to celebrate a USA too noble to enslave or crush, but to lead toward all that is good, kind, and free.

Be proud of your heritage.
