A code compliance inspection of an existing building or structure including mechanical, electrical, plumbing, gas, and energy conservation systems may be necessary to determine the extent of all required improvements for compliance with the intent of the applicable construction and life safety codes. Any improvements to the existing building or structure as stated in the code compliance inspection report require the issuance of a building permit.

Certificate of Occupancy from the City of Dacula and Gwinnett County is required before issuance of a business license.

Gwinnett County Fire Marshal: A Fire Marshal Inspection is required prior to receiving your Certificate of Occupancy. Please call Gwinnett County Fire Marshal at 678-518-4980 Ext. 2 for more information.

City of Dacula: All changes of tenancies in any commercial structure require a compliance inspection prior to receiving your Certificate of Occupancy. Please contact Precision Planning at 770-338-8000 or at inspections@ppi.us to schedule your inspection.
